

Robbie Van Pelt (RVP)
Instructional Material Center

See your Media Specialist to reserve Novels

Welcome to the Robbie Van Pelt Instructional Materials Center. This center was named in memory of Robbie Van Pelt, Greenville County Coordinator of Media Services from 1999-2005. This serves to acknowledge her leadership, dedication and enthusiasm for creating world-class media centers in Greenville County Schools that will impact the lives of Greenville school children for years to come. Her work in administering a $1.5 million district allocation to update the book collections of all Greenville County school libraries brought national recognition to our district.

If you would like to place an order, please see your media specialist to place a hold. PLEASE ALLOW TWO WEEKS FOR PROCESSING AND DELIVERY. Six weeks is the normal check out time allowed. Should you need more time, please contact your media specialist to check availability.

Returns should be marked RVP/Warehouse and placed in your Front Office where the courier delivers mail.

END OF YEAR: The return date for the end of the school year is May 21st.
